Scope and Contents

The Jacques Ellul Collection is based upon a three-reel microfilm set, which follows Jacques Ellul: A Comprehensive Bibliography (published in Research on Philosophy and Technology, supplement 1, 1984) compiled by Dr. Joyce Main Hanks. The microfilm contains many of the hard-to-find Ellul essay, speeches and lectures. The comprehensive bibliography was followed by an update in 1991 (Jacques Ellul: A Comprehensive Bibliographic Update, in Research in Philosophy and Technology, vol. 11).

The prints from the microfilm, numbering over 6,000, comprise the bulk of the collection (7.5 linear feet). These prints are of Ellul's writings, dissertations, books, and articles on his writings and reviews of his books. His writings range in date from 1936 to 1983, while the secondary material ranges in date from 1939-1984. His writings are arranged chronologically while the secondary material is not, the prints follow the order found in the comprehensive bibliography, which serves well as a finding aid. The microfilm prints are followed by holographic and xerographic Ellul manuscripts totaling eight (8) inches. These are manuscripts for his books, lectures and addresses, and notes. Following the manuscripts are articles and reviews by Ellul, both xerographic and microfilm prints. All the folders in each box have been organized chronologically, except for the reviews, which are alphabetical by book title.

The collection also contains media material, including interviews with Ellul, conducted by Joyce Hanks (awaiting transcription) and others.

Secondary material finishes the collection with works on Ellul, critical reviews, correspondence concerning Ellul, and serials on Ellul studies.

Arrangement Note

The collection is arranged by series with folder level control.

"Lectures on information theory and sociology of information" [xerographs of typed pages]; date unknown. 109 p. Box 18; Folder 6

Note: Lectures given in French at the University of Bordeaux. Andrew Goddard's letter of 11 December 1992 suggests these could have been from 1967 due to the fact that they mention events up to 1966 but do not mention the student troubles of 1968. The themes of the lectures are also similar to ones that Ellul wrote about in late 1967 (cf. Hanks 1984:37 no. 13).

Note: French, given at Bordeaux.

"Propositions pour des Etats Generaux du Protestantisme francais" [two xerograph copies]; 1985. 15 p. each with magazine bulletins at the end. Box 18; Folder 12

Note: this is Ellul's "agregation" manuscript. According to Goddard in his 11 December 1992 letter, "This is listed in some French publications as one of his works but with the publisher as ("Chez l'auteur, 1943") eg. Jeunesse Delinquante (1985:215) and La Raison d'etre (1987:317)." For more information see Hanks 1984:viii.

Notes on Parables of the Kingdom for a Bible study at "Chartrons" in Bordeaux [1981-82]. 42 p., xerograph Box 18; Folder 13
